

NRAEF ManageFirst™ Food Production

Table of Contents

Chapter 1 Establishing Standard Food Production Procedures

- The Importance of Standards for Controlling Production Volume
- Establishing Standards for Controlling Production Volume
- Using Standard Procedures to Control Production Volume
- Sales History and Forecasting
- Knowledge and Skills Needed by Food Production Employees

Chapter 2 Product Quality—Know Your Product

- Know Your Food Products: Food Inspections and Grading
- What to Look for in Quality Dry Goods
- Understanding Proper Receiving Conditions and Food-handling

Chapter 3 Receiving and Storing to Maintain Quality

- Building a System That Maintains Quality Product
- Supplier Selection
- Receiving Requirements for Quality
- Receiving Procedures
- Storage Procedures That Relate to Food Quality

Chapter 4 Quality in Food Production

- Preparation Methods to Enhance Food Quality
- Cooking Methods to Enhance Food Quality
- Maintaining Quality after the Cooking Phase

Chapter 5 Food Production in Quantity

- The Main Event—from Four to Four Hundred
- Factors That Influence Quantity Events
- Planning for Quantity Events
- Working Smartly to Help Events Run Smoothly

Chapter 6 Is There Food Quality in Leftover Food?

- A Systematic Approach to Repurposing Food
- Options for Repurposing Food
- Ensuring Safety When Repurposing Food
- Ensuring Quality When Repurposing Food
- Ethical Considerations When Repurposing Food

Chapter 7 Building a Quality System

- Creating a Quality System
- Assessing and Maintaining Your Professional Skills

Field Project

Index