

NRAEF ManageFirst™
Controlling Foodservice Costs

Table of Contents

Chapter 1 What is Cost Control?

- The Manager's Role in Cost Control
- Types of Costs
- The Cost Control Process

Chapter 2 A Closer Look at Food Cost

- Food Cost Defined
- Calculating Food Cost
- Calculating Food Cost Percentage

Chapter 3 Using Standardized Recipes to Determine Standard Portion Control

- What is Standardized Recipe?
- Determining Standard Portion Control

Chapter 4 Cost Control and the Menu—Determining Selling Prices and Product Mix

- Determining Selling Prices for Menu Items
- Market Forces Affecting Selling Prices
- Menu Product Mix
- Monitoring Menu-Related Costs

Chapter 5 Controlling Food Costs in Purchasing and Receiving

- Purchasing Procedures and Cost Control
- Catering Purchases
- Butcher Test
- Receiving Procedures and Cost Control

Chapter 6 Controlling Food Cost in Storage and Issuing

- Using Proper Storage Techniques to Control Food Cost
- Inventory Control
- Perpetual vs. Physical Inventory

Chapter 7 Controlling Food Cost in Production

- Monitoring the Use of Standardized Recipes
- Determining How Much Food to Produce
- Recipe Conversions
- Determining Recipe Yields

Chapter 8 Controlling Food Cost in Service and Sales

- Service and Portion Control
- Portion Control Devices
- Product Usage Report and Waste Report
- Controlling Food Cost in Sales

Chapter 9 Controlling Labor Costs

- Labor Costs
- Budget as a Cost Control
- Creating Schedules
- Creating the Crew Schedule
- Controlling Labor Costs

Field Project

Index